Master of Arts

Communication, Literature, and Media in modern South Asian Languages

At the time of application, you must demonstrate language proficiency in at least one of the following four South Asian languages: Bengali, Hindi, Urdu, Tamil. Your language proficiency should be equivalent to at least four semesters of study of the language at a university or equivalent institution. If you have acquired the language skills elsewhere, please describe how and where you acquired them. The admissions board may conduct a test, if necessary, to determine the level of language proficiency.
